

REVIEW

How, between October 30 and November 10 in Tiberius Israel, God used my experience with (1) Malaria, (2) Extensive Double Pneumonia, (3) Acute Respiratory Distress Syndrome, and (4) Ovale Malaria to help me Relearn Valuable Life Lessons.

Forward by Char Meyers

Introduction – You may not learn anything new in this book, but possibly you will benefit from this review of some of life's lessons.

1. Israel – I contracted Malaria in the Congos in June and July and was healed in Israel under the extreme care of kind, skilled People - Israel should do better in the world propaganda wars
2. Trio – Diagnosis, Correction, and Recovery – Allow Ample Time for Each
3. Beauty – Character Trumps Appearance
4. Words – Words can hurt a more Important part of us than our Bodies
5. Sedation – Complete Recovery Includes Thorough Re-entry into Reality
6. Bath – Observations Regarding the High Value of Chastity.
7. Support – Never have I more appreciated Char, our two sons, a world-wide network of prayer warriors, and the encouragement of Friends. Just a week earlier a 29-year-old young lady returned to Israel and died of Malaria. Why did God spare me and not her?
8. Wounds – God Loves us so much that He is Willing to hurt us to Improve us.
9. Lions – The Lion of the Tribe of Judah will eventually defeat the one who goes about “like” a roaring Lion - Spiritual Lessons from the fights of Male Lions
